2. In order to clearly demarcate the factual circumstances, consideration, and final directions qua these cases, they have been divided into List A, List B, and List C, which are appended to this Judgment.

3. For the reasons recorded below, delay is condoned in the cases enumerated in List A and List B.

4. Applications for substitution of legal heirs, abatement of proceedings against deceased persons, and condonation of delay in the same are allowed, at the risk of the respective applicants. The registry is directed to amend the memo of parties accordingly.

5. Leave is granted in the Special Leave Petitions in List A.

6. Permission to file Miscellaneous Applications is granted in the applications included in List B.

LEGISLATIVE, FACTUAL, AND ADJUDICATORY HISTORY

7. This batch of cases comprises Civil Appeals, Contempt Petitions, Miscellaneous Applications, Review Petitions, and Curative Petitions pertaining to acquisition of various parcels of land in the National Capital Territory of Delhi. The acquisitions were initiated by the Union of India, the Government of the NCT of Delhi (as also the erstwhile Union Territory of Delhi), the Delhi Development Authority, the Delhi Metro Rail Corporation, the Delhi State Industrial and Infrastructure Development Corporation, Airport Authority of India, or other Central and State agencies and corporations for a variety of public purposes. These acquisitions and the accompanying process itself were undertaken over a long period of time, with some acquisitions having been initiated as far back as in 1950.

8. To briefly illustrate, in SLP (Civil) Diary No. 11949/2022, the acquisition over Khasra No. 1292 (½ share) and 2002/1288 (¼ share), Revenue Estate, Village Kishangarh Mehrauli, Delhi was initiated through a notification dated 23.01.1965 issued under Section 4 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (Old Act). Upon completion of the procedural requirements, an Award dated 09.01.1981 was passed by the Land Acquisition Collector. Subsequently, the possession of the land was nominally taken through Rapat Roznamcha dated 23.09.1981. However, in SLP (Civil) No. 6028/2020, the acquisition for land in Village Budhpur, Delhi was initiated on 14.01.1994, with the Award being passed on 18.12.1996 and nominal possession having been taken on 20.01.1995.

9. For the purposes of this order, it is neither required that we refer to the long history of each of these cases, nor, in our considered opinion, is it prudent to add to the confusion by introducing irrelevant facts to the narration. Hence, we may not refer to the particular facts leading each case to the instant threshold.

10. We do, however, deem it necessary to mention that despite the factual diversity in these cases, all the subject acquisitions have taken place prior to 01.01.2014, i.e., before the Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013 (2013 Act) came into force. In other words, these acquisitions were initiated, and Awards thereof were passed under the Old Act, which now stands repealed.

11. The introduction of the 2013 Act brought in a crucial transitional provision in the form of Section 24(2), the interpretation and application whereof form the common thread of dispute in all these cases.

12. For reference, the text of Section 24(2) of the 2013 Act provides that:

> "24. Land acquisition process under Act No. 1 of 1984 shall be deemed to have lapsed in certain cases.–
> xx xx xx xx
> (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), in case of land acquisition proceedings initiated under the Land Acquisition

Act, 1894 (1 of 1894), where an award under the said section 11 has been made five years or more prior to the commencement of this Act but the physical possession of the land has not been taken or the compensation has not been paid the said proceedings shall be deemed to have lapsed and the appropriate Government, if it so chooses, shall initiate the proceedings of such land acquisition afresh in accordance with the provisions of this Act:

Provided that where an award has been made and compensation in respect of a majority of land holdings has not been deposited in the account of the beneficiaries, then, all beneficiaries specified in the notification for acquisition under section 4 of the said Land Acquisition Act, shall be entitled to compensation in accordance with the provisions of this Act."

[Emphasis supplied]

13. Soon after the 2013 Act came into force, a Coordinate Bench of this Court had the occasion to interpret this provision in Pune Municipal Corporation v. Harakchand Misirimal Solanki.[1] Therein, it was held that if either the possession of the acquired land is not taken or the compensation is not tendered to the landowner, the acquisition would be deemed to have lapsed. In other words, this Court laid down the test that if the acquiring authority or the assisting government functionaries failed to perform either of their duties prior to the 2013 Act coming into force, the acquisition would stand annulled.

14. Relying on the law laid down in Pune Municipal (supra), several landowners, whose lands had been acquired under the Old Act, approached the High Court of Delhi (High Court) by way of Writ Petitions, seeking a declaration that the acquisition in question had lapsed. The High Court, in turn, applied the ratio laid down in the above-cited judgment and issued such declarations.

1 (2014) 3 SCC 183.

15. Consequently, in many cases, the Government of NCT of Delhi or other authorities filed Special Leave Petitions (SLPs) against such orders, some of which were dismissed in limine, while others were dismissed after granting leave, in view of the judgement in Pune Municipal (supra). There were also some cases where, due to facts of the case, after granting leave, the Civil Appeals were partly or fully allowed, and the respective orders of the High Court were set aside.

16. It bears elucidation that subsequently, a Constitution Bench of this Court, vide judgment dated 06.03.2020 titled Indore Development Authority v. Manoharlal,[2] turned the tables on the then subsisting law by holding that for an acquisition under the Old Act to lapse under Section 24(2) of the 2013 Act, both of the following conditions must be satisfied, viz.: (i) the compensation must not have been deposited; and (ii) the possession of the property must also not have been taken by the acquiring authority. To put it succinctly, it was enough for either the possession of the acquired land to be taken or the compensation to be paid for the acquisition to neutralise the effect of Section 24(2) of the 2013 Act.

17. Since the law stood reversed and the decision in Pune Municipal (supra) was overruled by the Constitution Bench in Indore Development Authority (supra), the instant controversy arose with regard to the orders passed by the High Court in the interregnum, i.e., relying upon Pune Municipal (supra). Apart from SLPs filed with delays of over five years, various Miscellaneous Applications, Review Petitions, and Curative Petitions, also came to be filed by the Government and its Authorities/Agencies, challenging the prior declarations of the High Court that the acquisitions had lapsed, as well as the orders of this Court upholding the same.

18. A substantial number of such petitions and applications came to be heard by a Coordinate Bench of this Court, including one of us (Surya Kant, J., as he then was). Since the cases raised a multitude of issues and required this Court to apply the law to a diverse set of facts, the Coordinate Bench passed three even-dated judgments on 17.05.2024 (2024 Judgments).[3] At this juncture, it is apposite to outline the key principles laid down through these decisions:

18.1. In State (NCT of Delhi) v. K.L. Rathi Steels Ltd. and State (NCT of Delhi) v. BSK Realtors LLP, this Court dealt with cases where after the High Court had declared the acquisition to have lapsed, the acquiring authority(s) challenged those orders before this Court, and the proceedings before this Court stood concluded. On the other hand, through DDA v. Tejpal, this Court dealt with such cases where the order had not been challenged before this Court or where the prior cases had not reached any appellate conclusion.

18.2. Specifically, in K.L. Rathi Steels (supra), it was held that once this Court had passed an order disposing of the SLP or the Appeal, a Review Petition thereon, based on the premise that the interpretation of the law has changed, would not be maintainable. Miscellaneous Applications that effectively sought review of the order(s) of this Court were held to be non-maintainable.

3 State (NCT of Delhi) v. K.L. Rathi Steels Ltd., (2024) 7 SCC 315; State (NCT of Delhi) v. BSK Realtors LLP, (2024) 7 SCC 370; DDA v. Tejpal, (2024) 7 SCC 433.

18.3. In the same vein, the decision in BSK Realtors (supra), built upon the principle of 'doctrine of merger', holding that once this Court grants leave in an SLP and passes an order disposing of the underlying appeal, the order of the High Court merges with the final order of this Court. As such, it was postulated that after such merger, a subsequent SLP against the same order of the High Court cannot be entertained.

18.4. Through the opinion in Tejpal (supra), judicial consideration was placed on whether the delay in filing of the SLPs ought to be condoned. The Coordinate Bench came to a conclusion that, given the underlying critical public purpose involved in the acquisitions, which formed the backbone of various developmental projects in Delhi, the delay in such cases ought to be condoned.

18.5. The Coordinate Bench also arrived at some findings which were common to all three Judgments. Firstly, it was held that in the cases where the locus of the Petitioner before the High Court, who prayed for lapsing of the acquisition, was doubtful, the same would have to be examined at the outset. In such circumstances, the cases were remanded to the High Court for such determination. Second, the Bench recognised that even in the cases covered by the decision in K.L. Rathi Steels (supra) and BSK Realtors (supra), the projects involved grave public interest. Hence, by invoking Article 142 of the Constitution, this Court issued detailed directions in Paragraphs 128 and 58 of the judgments, respectively, to streamline the re-acquisition process under the 2013 Act. Similar directions were also issued to preserve the public interest involved in cases where the acquisition was held to have lapsed in terms of Manoharlal (supra).

19. The matters that are now listed before us indisputably fall within one or the other class of cases identified by this Court through the 2024 Judgments. However, they remain pending because they were either not formally disposed of at that time, or are filed afresh, or are petitions/applications arising out of the individual adjudication done by this Court either through the 2024 Judgments or through subsequent decisions following any of the said judgments.

ANALYSIS

20. We have heard learned Senior Counsel/Counsel for the various parties, including the Union of India, NCT of Delhi, DDA and other Authorities/Government Corporations/Public Sector Undertakings, and the landowners.

21. One of the ways to deal with these residual cases would be for this Court to take each case up, one at a time, and dispose of them in accordance with the law laid down by the Constitution Bench and subsequent Coordinate Bench decisions of this Court. Such individual adjudication would, however, require appreciation of factual evidence and consume a lot of time of this Court. That apart, as this Court is the last forum available to the litigants, there would be no further opportunity of appeal to either side on such factual adjudication.

22. A more appropriate method, in our considered opinion, would be to remand these matters to the High Court for adjudication upon examination of the record and the independent facts of each matter. This would not involve a return of the case for reconsideration of the original prayer in the Writ Petition filed before the High Court. Rather, the High Court would be required to exercise its plenary powers under Article 226 to determine the category within which each case falls and pass consequential orders in terms of the 2024 Judgments. This option would, clearly, be better suited to expeditiously and individually conclude the consideration of these cases.

23. We must note that this batch of matters also includes Review Petitions and Applications seeking modification or recall of the orders passed through the 2024 Judgments or any consequential orders. Similarly, there are Contempt Petitions filed by landowners, who are aggrieved by the Authorities' non-compliance with this Court's previous orders upholding the declaration of the acquisition as lapsed. In our considered opinion, these sub-classes of cases ought not to be remanded for adjudication by the High Court.

24. For the remaining cases, where initial determination in terms of the 2024 Judgments is yet to take place, we may clarify that the purpose of remitting these cases would not be for the High Court to redetermine whether the acquisition can be deemed to have lapsed as per the principles in Manoharlal (supra). Instead, the High Court would proceed to deal with such cases in the following manner:

24.1. First, it should be considered whether the Writ Petitioners before it had locus standi to seek declaration under Section 24(2) of the 2013 Act, either on account of being a subsequent purchaser or on account of the title of the land being clouded. If the Writ Petition is found lacking on this aspect, the High Court would be required to hold that the prayer in the same could not be granted.

24.2. Second, the status of previously disposed of Special Leave Petition(s) or Civil Appeal(s) arising from the same Writ Petition must be identified, so as to determine whether the Doctrine of Merger has crystallised.

24.3. Third, if the Writ Petition is maintainable and is filed with necessary locus and no appellate order of the Supreme Court has been passed, the question to be determined is whether the acquisition has lapsed as per the law in force.

24.4. Finally, in view of the findings on the above issues, an appropriate direction safeguarding the Constitutional rights of the landowners as also the collective interest in the various projects undertaken by the government and its functionaries has to be issued.

CONCLUSION AND DIRECTIONS

25. Keeping in mind the above deliberations and in the interest of doing complete justice, we deem it appropriate to invoke Article 142 of the Constitution and issue the following directions:

(i) The Civil Appeals, which are included in List A, are partly allowed, the impugned judgments and orders of the High Court are hereby set aside, and the Writ Petition before the High Court stands revived, for adjudication in terms of this Judgment read with the 2024 Judgments;

(ii) The Review Petitions, Miscellaneous Applications, and Curative Petitions, which are included in List B, are dismissed in light of the decision in K.L. Rathi Steels (supra). However, the underlying Writ Petitions which were filed before the High Court are hereby restored to their original file for adjudication in terms of this Judgment read with the 2024 Judgments;

(iii) The Registry shall forthwith transfer the record of all these cases to the High Court;

(iv) Since no determination on the merits of the individual cases is being made through this order, the interim relief, if any, granted by this Court, shall continue till the cases are finally disposed of by High Court.

26. We request Hon'ble the Chief Justice of the High Court of Delhi to assign these transferred matters to an appropriate Division Bench. In the interest of expediency, the Chief Justice is further requested to ensure that only these matters are assigned to the Division Bench till a majority of these cases are disposed of. The Division Bench of the High Court, to whom these cases would be assigned, is requested to take up the same on day-to-day basis and adjudicate them after affording a reasonable opportunity to all parties to make their submissions and present the record, including any fresh and additional affidavits.

27. The Review Petitions, Miscellaneous Applications, Curative Petitions, and Contempt Petitions, which are included in List C, are to be listed before an appropriate bench of this Court. The Registry is directed to do the needful, after taking necessary directions from the Chief Justice of India on the administrative side.

28. Ordered accordingly.
